Recognize your face?

What you want in photography is likeness, naturalness, life. You can't have these when you get your pictures from a "lucky" (?) artist. What we mean by luck is the artist who depends on luck for a good picture. Our pictures are good. They are all you want of them. Don't cost so much as to be expensive, but cost more and are better than cheap ones.

BROKE JAIL.

Three Prisoners Made Escape from Parkersburg Jail.

Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock three prisoners escaped from the Parkersburg jail.

They got out by knocking down Turnkey Echols, who was taking supper into the prisoners. Three of the inmates went out; but two of them did not stay out long, for they were caught before they left town.

One of them, a man named Nixon, from Walker Station, who was held on the charge of burglary, made his escape, and up to the time of our going to press had not been heard from.

He will continue to make his home in Belpre.—Sentinel.

"For Fair Virginia."

A fair-sized audience witnessed the war drama "For Fair Virginia" at the Auditorium Tuesday night. The drama is a beautiful story typical of the conflicting loyalty and consequent suffering that invaded many a southern home during the war. It contains many thrilling situations and closes with the old fashioned but satisfactory death of the bad man and reunion of all the good people.

OIL NOTES.

The alleged shallow strike at Vienna has failed to pan out as its owners, Frazz Bros. & Co., and many other had hoped it would. A small showing equal to that in the Grier well, was gotten, but a shot failed to cause the anticipated response. The well was on the Bell farm, and was an important test.

The best strike which has been made for some time was made about ten days ago in the Hebron field on the widow Smith farm by the Carter Oil company. The well is in Big Injun production and has held up ever since it came in at a good hundred barrels per day. This well no doubt defines the north-eastern outlet of the pool and is considerably ahead of production heretofore.—Oil Review.

A War Play That Pleases.

On Dec. 16th, Thursday, the patrons of the Auditorium will again have an opportunity to see the celebrated military drama "The Girl I Left Behind Me." This is one of the most successful plays in elaborated productions ever put forth from the Metropolis. It is calculated on exciting lines and based on strong theatrical facts. The authors of the play are David Belasco and Franklin Fyles, two men remarkably expert in their line of work. Mr. Belasco will be remembered for his effective characterizations in "The Wife" and "The Charity Ball." Mr. Fyles is the dramatic editor of the New York Sun. The cast includes 17 people and each one of them plays an important part in helping on the action. The piece revolves around a war in the far West between the Blackfoot Indians and a detachment of the American army. In rapid succession occur scenes of love, hate, regret, animosity and turbulence.

Christmas is about here, and it's time for you to think about tree ornaments and candles. Pfaff, Putnam street, has them, a plenty.

MOTHER'S MISTAKE.

Marietta Mothers Make It. But With a Little Night There Need Be None.

How carefully parents guard the secrets of their boys and girls. At night they carefully tuck the bed clothes around them; they hide, and warn around them that they will be angry if they repeat last night's offense, softly saying to themselves, "It's only a habit, but we must break them of it. This is the parent's mistake. The children cannot help it, and sweet, clean, dry beds can be the resting place of every child when it is understood that the cause is not a habit, but a weakness that can be cured. Active life of the little ones tend to weaken the kidneys, and weak kidneys means inability to retain the urine. This is a condition, not a habit, and should have the same prompt attention you would give to the marked symptoms of any disease. One Doan's Kidney Pills taken twice a day and at bedtime will strengthen the kidneys of a child and in a short time there will be no cause to scold, for the so-called habit will disappear promptly.

Mrs. Wm. McBride, of No. 282 West Bloom street, Mansfield, Ohio, says: "My little boy, when he was eight weeks old, was attacked with rheumatism. He recovered from the immediate effects of it, but ever since he has had weak kidneys. This has given me a great deal of trouble during the night and the day, on account of the inability to retain the urine. It apparently had the effect of making him feel poorly, for his appetite flagged and he did not thrive. We were anxious to get something that would benefit him, so when we noticed more than one account of Doan's Kidney Pills curing such cases we got him a box. We gave him one pill at a time and were very much pleased that he was taking a turn for the better, and showed steady improvement. We can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for this distressing weakness in children." Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-McBarn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.
